Developing the Entrepreneurial Spirit for the Global Marketplace

THE A.M.P.S. INSTITUTE

MISSION

The mission of the A.M.P.S. Institute is to provide the basic knowledge needed for youth to compete successfully in a free-market system through innovative leadership techniques and entrepreneurial real-world experiences.

GOALS

- To equip students with a set of portable, entrepreneurial and leadership skills that include critical thinking, observing, writing, planning, marketing, team building and financial literacy, with a technological basis.
- To make participants aware of entrepreneurial opportunities through exploring activities that reveal market conditions.
- To provide students with entrepreneurial skills so that they may gain an advantage in the business world and incentive to continue their education.
- To teach the importance of and the means to create capital ownership, wealth and economic control within a community.
- To prepare a class of future entrepreneurial thinkers (especially in urban and rural areas) who can enhance business growth, create jobs, develop community resources, and stimulate the national economy.

Founder/CEO James Amps III

OVERVIEW

The A.M.P.S. Institute is an international training company and a division of AMPS International, LLC headquartered in Pembroke Pines, Florida. The Institute specializes in entrepreneurship education, financial literacy and leadership development. To accomplish our mission, we develop retreats and deliver workshops to train teenagers, adults, teachers, youth leaders and parents.

WHAT EDUCATORS ARE SAYING

“The A.M.P.S. Institute provides a needed benefit to the educational system in preparing our young people for entrepreneurial ventures. The retreats are life changing, intensive and creative. If asked, I would participate again!”

Dr. Frank Till, Superintendent of Broward County, FL School

PROFESSIONAL RETREAT

This dynamic and intense 3 – to – 4 day retreat provides participants with ample opportunity to explore talents and interest, while enhancing communications skills and developing leadership techniques. Participants become strong independent entrepreneurial thinkers by taking risks in a non-threatening environment.

Core workshop areas include – Time Management, Critical Thinking, Leadership, Presentation Skills, Financial Literacy, Entrepreneurship, Business Etiquette and the ever popular 'AMPS Midnight Success Madness' a special component only conducted at the AMPS Institute Retreat. (You have to be there to experience it!)

WHAT STUDENTS ARE SAYING

“I never thought I would enjoy standing up in front of people to present my ideas”

J. Thomas – 16 – Ft. Lauderdale, FL

“The AMPS Midnight Madness was a blast. Creating ventures when people are asleep is something I won't ever forget.”

C. Rhodes – 17- Camden, N.J.

BUSINESS & CORPORATE SUPPORT

The A.M.P.S. Institute is co-sponsored by local and national corporations, therefore has very affordable registration fees. Venture Capital opportunities are made available at the end of the retreat through business competition.
